A period is given boys alone in a special chorus of picked voices; another to girls; another to the choral union of both, number 130. The orchestra, under James Mason, forge teacher, does noble work. Their playing of the Tannhaeuser march has never been excelled to my knowledge by a city high school orchestra. Very sincerely yours, CHARLES LAGERQUIST. A magnificent new high school was dedicated at Elizabeth, N. J., the first of December. This building is planned to accomodate twelve-hundred students with the most complete equipment to meet every anticipated need for education and recreation. The music at this dedication was directed by Dr. Thomas Wilson, Supervisor of Music in the Elizabeth schools, and the following music was rendered under his direction: Battln High School Orchestra, 40 Players Hungarian Dance, No. 1...
