Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Letter of Hon.: John Fine, to His Constituents, August, 1840 To the Electors of St. Laurence and Franklin Counties, New-York: Having been honored by your votes with a seat in Congress, and having served through a long and fatiguing session, I purpose to lay before you a plain and short statement of some of the important measures which were debated and acted on in the House of Representatives, and the reasons which governed me in my votes. In the South and West, our public men meet their constituents in promiscuous assemblies and give an account of their official services, and answer any enquiries which may be put to them. The custom of the North is different. It is not usual for our Representatives, except in a collective capacity, to address their constituents even in writing. This departure from the practice of my predecessors may by some be disapproved. My apology, if any be needed, is the very great importance of the measures, upon which I was called to act, and the desire of your approval after knowing the reasons which influenced me. To many it may seem strange that I preserved an unbroken silence throughout the session. I think you would acquit me of blame, if you could have been present to witness the difficulty and struggle with which the floor was obtained, and the daily waste of time by the raising of points of order, by the calling of the roll, on a demand of the yeas and nays upon unimportant questions, and by the continual repetition of bitter party harangues. The session was sufficiently protracted without my adding to its length. The first...
