By Lance Macneil

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .People with jobs believe that their income is representative of their wealth. The questions they ask are who do you work for? How much do you earn? or what car do you drive? These people fall into the category of looking good, going nowhere. They buy stuff to look and feel rich. To sustain their lifestyle they continually work harder, longer hours and constantly educate themselves to become even more specialized. A paycheck, no matter how big, cannot be defined as wealth or riches. Most people think that getting a bigger paycheck or salary is making them richer. Nothing can be further from truth. In fact 95 of people spend every dollar they earn. By the way acronym for job is Just Over Broke We need cash flow to pay our bills, put food on the table, send our kids to school and sustain any kind of lifestyle. But if your cash flow is solely reliant on your paycheck then you are at grave risk. You can fall ill, have an accident or lose your job. Ask millions...
