Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Address Delivered by Judge Arthur Mac Arthur at the Ninth Annual Commencement, of the Washington Normal School for the District of Columbia, June 9, 1882 These young ladies have completed the course of studies prescribed in the Washington Normal School, and are entitled to receive the certificate awarded to all those who have passed the test of a satisfactory examination. They have been specially trained in the science of teaching, and will find employment at once to instruct the various grades in the public schools of the District. We have assembled this evening to honor their diligence, to witness the delivery of their certificates, and to bid them God-speed in the highly useful career to which they have devoted so much of their future life. The Normal School is a revolution in the science of pedagogies. It is the revolution of our century. The art by which the teacher himself is taught successfully the principles and rules which pertain to the instruction of the young, is a new thing and one of the most important...
