This happens when the student enters such a private hospital for two or three years and is placed at a very early stage of her work upon special duty with a single patient, a considerable fee being charged for her services. In some instances it is said that pupils are kept at such special individual work during the greater portion of the course of their so-called training, the fees for their services going directly to the management. But this does not exhaust the methods by which hospitals can utilize for their own profits the services of their students. Out of the entire 692 hospitals from which statistics were recently received, 248 were found sending out their pupils into families in...
