Excerpt: .as near a contiguity to it as possible would be advantageous, for the sake of the physician s constant attendance; but the chronic lunatic may very well dispense with his visits. Supervision by a paid staff of inspectors we hold to be indispensable in such a freeair system; and we believe it to be the most practicable and the most advantageous, both for the sake of the lunatic and for the sake of the asylum itself. The visitation of private patients at present is a mere delusion, once a year being the average amount of visits paid to them. In the case of pauper boarders they would demand more careful supervision than even the better class of patients: hence a large increase of the inspectors is indispensable. It would require time to get such a system into working order, but it would, when once...
