Berghahn Books, United Kingdom, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. .a highly readable and structured discussion about utopian thinking at the beginning of the 21st century .It is indeed fortunate that political scientists, historians, philosophers, art critics, and literary theorists have come together to share their thinking on utopia and utopian thought at this disastrous moment of human history, when many are asking if there is a future to which to look forward. - European Legacy After the breakdown of socialist and communist systems in the East, it became fashionable to declare the so-called end of utopia ( end of history, end of narratives ). The authors of this volume do not share this view but think that it is time to rehabilitate utopian thought. By broadening the perspectives of utopian studies, these essays enable the reader to reconstruct scholarly paradigms and strategies of utopian, complex and holistic thinking in modern cosmology, philosophy, sociology, in literary, historical and political sciences, and to compare traditions and ways of Western utopian thought to the practice in the East. Jorn Rusen was Professor of Modern History at Universities Bochum and Bielefeld for many years. From 1994 to 1997 he was Director of the Center for Interdisciplinary Research (ZiF) at Bielefeld.
