Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Literature and Music: A Manual for Teachers and Students in School and Home Some one has said that Music is of all the arts the directest epitome of life. Since literature is the interpretation of life it is obvious that the teaching of literature and music has a common aim and method. When we realize that the relations of men to each other and to nature are, after all, emotional and not intellectual, it is clear that teaching appreciation in literature aims to create power to perceive, visualize, and feel truth and beauty. The general trend of education to-day is toward unity of conception and treatment. No teacher, no subject-matter lives unto itself. The chief problem in pedagogy is how to secure willing and intelligent co-operation among teachers, and practical and vital correlation of subject-matter. This co-operation is not merely a matter of helpful assistance; it is a serious effort to find identities of aim, content, and method in teaching so that the minds and spirits of young people may not only be freed but...
