

The Man Who Cycled the World

By Mark Beaumont

Broadway Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 400 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.8in. On 15 February 2008, Mark Beaumont pedalled through the Arc de Triomphe in Paris. 194 days and 17 hours previously, he had set off from Paris in an attempt to circumnavigate the world in record time. Mark smashed the Guinness World Record by an astonishing 81 days. He had travelled more than 18,000 miles on his own through some of the harshest conditions one man and his bicycle can endure, camping wild at night and suffering from constant ailments. The Man Who Cycled the World is the story not just of that amazing achievement, but of the events that turned Mark Beaumont into the man he is today. From the early years of his free-spirited childhood in the Scottish countryside, he had been determined to break records, cycling across Scotland and then from John OGroats to Lands End by the age of fifteen, raising thousands of pounds for charity. After leaving university, he had been equally determined not to settle for an average existence, but to break free and see the world from a saddle, to follow his dreams. This is the tale not just...

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

[7.07 MB]

Reviews

This ebook might be worth a read, and superior to other. It is probably the most remarkable book i have got read. Its been designed in an remarkably straightforward way and it is merely soon after i finished reading this publication where really modified me, alter the way i really believe.

-- Alex Zieme DDS

Comprehensive information for book fanatics. it had been writtern really completely and useful. I am happy to explain how this is the greatest publication i have read through in my very own life and can be he finest pdf for ever.

-- Virginie Collier I