Why did they have such queer names? What kinds of weather were they born in? (Rainy weather, clear weather, stormy weather, and cold weather.) Tell the children something about the reasons for the different kinds of weather. Were Rain, Dew, Hail, and Frost good children? Why? Because they were prompt, studious, generous, and kind. Copy these words from the board. Have the children tell what each of these words means and write sentences of their own containing them. Write the little couplets on the board. Have the children copy and learn them. Write five words to rhyme with the last word in each line. Write the names of all the nouns. Make a list of them in alphabetical order. Write the verbs in a similar way. Write the adjectives. Write the adverbs. In how many sentences does it tell...
