By Dirk Collier

Amaryllis, New Delhi, 2011. Hardcover. Book Condition: New New. First. 24 cms. From the King of Kings, Shadow of God on this Earth, Splendour of Faith, Slayer of the Infidel, Bower of all Necks and Bender of all Knees, Jalal-ud-din Muhammad Akbar Padshah Ghazi, Shahan Shah, To his beloved son, Nur-ud-din Muhammad Jahangir Padshah Ghazi The Emperor's Writings is a painstakingly researched window on the forces that shaped one of India's greatest historical figures: Akbar. A sweeping epic, the book is equally entertaining and informative, provoking questions about religion and identity that remain deeply relevant today. -Pallavi Aiyar, -bestselling author of Smoke and Mirrors Akbar was an unlettered man. Yet, he was the greatest of the Mughal emperors who fought valiant wars and left an indelible mark on India's vibrant history. The Emperor's Writing retells the story of this great Mughal in the form of letters that he 'wrote' to his son Jahangir in an attempt to pass on the knowledge of shehenshahi (the art of governing the kingdom). Offering a unique historical perspective on the heart and soul of the Indian subcontinent, The Emperor's Writing is a book you wouldn't want to miss. It is admirably researched and written...
