

Worship Jesus in Song Choir Accompaniment

By MR Andrew P Partington

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 280 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .One of the main purposes of music in church for which it is under-utilised is to have an easy way of learning sections of scripture. Many of these songs are my own translations or paraphrases of sections from the letters of Paul or the sayings of Jesus, and various other parts of the Bible, including the Psalms and some sections from Isaiah that prophesy Jesus coming. I have written quite a few of these songs as rounds but it is not necessary to play them this way every time, they all work quite well as worship songs in their own right. There are sad songs as well as happy ones. The Bible contains many sad psalms, laments, and passages expressing grief as well as consolation, and I believe Christian worship ought to acknowledge the full range of human emotions: while joy is the predominant note in the New Testament, even Paul acknowledges that the Christian life is not always a bed of roses. He says in 2 Corinthians 1:8, We do not want you to...
