This is none other but the house of God. And he called the name of that place Bethel. --Gen. 28: 17, 19. ONE evening while Pastor Eovetruth, of Ismville, was sitting in his study, meditating upon his work of the day, a sharp ring of the door bell was heard, as if the caller had some matter of unusual importance. In answering the call he found at the door a neatly dressed young man of some marks of intelligence. The ministers first thought was that the young man was contemplating matrimony and was in search of some one to tie the nuptial knot. The thought is pardonable on the part of Pastor Lovetruth. Ministers are only human. After the usual words of greeting the young man was invited in and taken to the sitting room. You do not know me, I presume, the stranger said, as he took a seat and leisurely laid his hat by the side of the chair. No, I do not, replied Pastor Lovetruth. Howeve I am always ready to form new acquaintances. May I inquire your name Robert Woodknow is what they call me. I am an employe of the Union Iron Works of this place. I am a stranger here, having been in your town but a little more than two months. I am trying to live a Christian life and find that the influences about public works are distinctively bad, which makes the effort very difficult....
