Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from A Memoir of Theodore Strong, LL. D: Prepared at the Request of the National Academy of Science, and Read Before That Body Thursday Evening, April 17, 1879 Theodore Strong, one of the original corporate members of this Academy, was born on the 26th day of July, 1790, and died on the first day of February, 1869, in the seventy-ninth year of his age. His birth took place at South Hadley, Massachusetts, at the house of his uncle, Col. Benjamin Ruggles Woodbridge, a prominent citizen of that place, who virtually adopted him as his own son. His father and grandfather both bore the name of Joseph Strong, and were Congregational ministers, descended from Elder John Strong of Northampton, whose descendants, generally worthy of their Puritan ancestry, are scattered all over the land, and often found, as they have ever been, occupying positions of trust and responsibility. One of them is at this moment an honored associate of my own on the bench of the Supreme Court, being in the same degree of descent as the subject of this memoir, -...
